Kevin sold our house in McLean in a matter of days at full listing price, at a time the market was crashing. We have since seen him do the same thing with other houses. Interestingly, we found him by noticing that a house we had been looking at for a while suddenly looked better and had a lot more interest (it subsequently sold in a week) and that he had recently become the listing agent. He has an amazing eye for selling houses and is as attentive on the details as is possible to be. His approach is to get the house perfect before the first day of listing and to sell it fast. The only thing you have to do is to act on his suggestions--you will do it in the end if not up front! He is as good as we have ever seen in a listing agent.
